Mainly serving in the second grade throughout my years at Trinity Lutheran School, Wausau, Wisconsin.

Married to Dwayne with two children Christopher (18) and Cassidy (8).

Never represented the North Wisconsin District at a National Convention.

Sandra Raben

My name is Sandra Raben. I have been in the teaching ministry for 23 years. Currently I am the lead Kindergarten teacher at Trinity Lutheran School in Wausau, Wisconsin. I have served in a number of positions. I have taught Kindergarten, 1st, 2nd and 6th grades. I have also been the director of a Before and After School Program.

My husband, Brent and I have been married for 23 years. He is an Engineering Designer for Food Systems Design out of Bloomington, Minnesota. We have a 15-year-old daughter who is a freshman at Wisconsin Valley Lutheran High School.

I have not served as a representative at a Synodical convention.

Sue Lilienthal

Sue Lilienthal serves St. Paul Lutheran Church in Stevens Point, Wisconsin. Sue was called to St. Paul in 1991 from Concordia University Wisconsin-Mequon. She has her Master's Degree from University of Wisconsin Stevens Point. She has taught 2nd grade for 18 years at St. Paul. She also teaches 7th/8th grade and directs the annual school drama. In addition to her teaching duties she has been the youth director for St. Paul since 1991.

Sue has served as Interim Principal, has been a part of the Ministry Leadership Team (MLT) for many years, has served on several NLSA committees and visiting teams, graduated from the SLED 8 program, and is currently serving on the 2011 Professional Church Workers Conference Task Force. Her love for her Lord and for travel has led her on many servant events and mission trips. Although she has never attended a Synodical Convention, she sees it as an opportunity for a new experience.

Dian Schlichtmann

Dian Schlichtmann grew up near Hillsboro, North Dakota. She attended Concordia University in Seward, Nebraska, earning a degree in Elementary Education with an English concentration and Primary Education minor. Her first call was to St. Paul Lutheran School in Leavenworth, Kansas where she served for 3 years as the first grade teacher. Dian's second call was to Christ Lutheran Church in Wausau, Wisconsin where she has served for 15 years as the Minister of Music and Education. Currently, Dian is serving at Immanuel Lutheran School in Wisconsin Rapids as the 4K Teacher, Kindergarten – 4th Grade Music Teacher, and Child Care Director. She has never attended a Synodical convention.
